

Working Paper

Saturday 14th October 2017, ERASMUS-DAY, Lycée Jean Zay, PARIS

Europe alive in Schools, Schools alive with Europe

Schedule	Titles	Speakers	Remarks
8:30-9:00	Welcome Coffee	Exhibition « Art Partage » in the Hall	Contact with Chrystelle VIDAMMENT, founder of 'Art Partage'
9:00-9:45	Welcome Speeches Lycée Jean Zay	Anne HIDALGO , Mayor of Paris Franceline PARIZOT , Principal Pascal ORY , President of association « Les Amis de Jean Zay » Bernard HUGONNIER , International Consultant in Education, Professor at the Paris Catholic Institute and previous deputy-director at OECD	To be confirmed After the welcoming speeches, Bernard Hugonnier will introduce the general objectives of the day.
9:45-10:15	Europe Alive in Schools Educational Programmes of the EU and European Literacy	Marie-France MAILHOS , President of AEDE-France ERASMUS+ developer, partner organisation of ELICIT-PLUS & EU-STEM Coalition	What educational programmes, what practical tools has the EU implemented to trigger and develop a feeling of European belonging?
10:15-10:45	Un impérieux besoin d'Europe – Regard sur la construction européenne	Richard STOCK , General Director of the Robert Schuman European Centre
10:45-11:15	Coffee-Break

Working Paper

11:15 – 12:30	Europe: What are we talking about?? Round table	Sabine ROHMANN, Vice-President of the Robert Schuman Institute for Europe : « Eduquer des citoyens éclairés et critiques » Menno HETTEMA, Council of Europe “No Hate Speech Campaign” Colin MIEGE, Director of the scientific committee of “Sport and Citizenship” « Comment le sport contribue-t-il à la conscience européenne ? » Amin MAALOUF, Académicien	Europe? Common Market? European Citizenship? The European Union is a many-sided and many faceted object. At school it becomes a cross-curricular matter. Outside school, it is at the core of many non-formal educational projects. Strongly rooted in current events, political by essence, it could easily be considered partisan. How can we define this versatile object? . What are the stakes which make it a top-priority in today’s academic agenda?
12:30-13:30	LUNCH (Jean Zay Cafeteria)
13:30-14:30	« Schools Alive with Europe » Table-ronde	Cooperation between Schools and Civil Society; with the HIPPOCRENE Foundation, the Young EUROPEANS and the Maison de Jean MONNET Vincent ARIMONDO, Teacher in Euro-sections and coordinator of European projects. Marie-Laure CROGUENNEC, Teacher, Vice-President of AEDE-France : « Teaching European Citizenship in Primary Schools : a look at the private sector in Brittany » Fanny DUBRAY, Teacher, Secretary of AEDE-France : « Teaching European Citizenship in Higher Secondary Schools: from institutional expectations to innovative practices.”	To be confirmed Not very well positioned in the French system and not very visible in school syllabus and curriculum in our country, European Citizenship is nevertheless a highly legitimate topic at school. Most of the time, it is the actors themselves, namely the teachers, who address this issue and bring it to life outside the beaten tracks. It thus becomes a real subject for very fruitful pedagogical innovation.
14:30-15:30 Round Table	Skills for the Future: Developing innovative projects for a European future	Geert ASSELBERGS , Coordinator of EU-STEM Coalition, project manager internationalisation of the Dutch national Science & Technology platform (PBT)	Contribution from cognitive sciences, information technology, sciences, robotics, etc.

Working Paper

	to match the challenges of the 21st century	⇒ See Hans van der loo message and organize the participants	To what extent could a major European project help to promote STEM education in France?
15:30-17:00	Workshop A	Workshop B	Workshop C
	“EU-STEM Coalition” With Hans VAN DER LOO, President of the Scientific Committee of the Institute for Integrated Economic Research and Ambassador for EU-STEM Coalition Objective of the workshop: How to implement cooperation between Schools and Companies in order to develop European innovation	“Europe at school, a European insight” Workshop with Hellen JANSSEN &amp; EUROCLIO History ⇒ Maybe with the 3 historians from the 19th July debate =&gt; To be confirmed Objective of the workshop : How to discover and implement a European perspective on history	“Europe Alive in Schools: Developing Pedagogical Tools for teachers” Vincent LEQUEUX, In charge of Communication at Toute l’Europe Fanny DUBRAY, Secretary, in charge of Communication for AEDE-France Objective of the workshop: To launch the design of pedagogical worksheets by the participants
17:00-17:20	Closure	Conclusion by the team of our Great Witnesses, Bernard HUGONNIER and Alain FLEURY
17:20-17:40	Our political guests have the last word	Representatives from our Ministries(Education ; Europe) The Ministers themselves, Jean-Michel Blanquer ? Nathalie Loiseau ? DREIC ? Agence Erasmus+ ? European Commission ?
17:40-18:30	Cocktail Drinks		